They certainly liked what he had, but later told him that they had selected two other collectors from New Jersey for their upcoming shows. He had made it to the final 18 potential candidates to appear on the show, but was bypassed with a promise that he would be on the top of the list for the next New Jersey show in the future.

Route 9 Cash For Gold Buyers LLC

Maureen Herndon (above) and her husband Rob Herndon, are the owners of Route 9 Cash For Gold Buyers, and are firm believers in "honesty, loyalty, and integrity." (Photo by Tom Burkard)

Route 9 Cash For Gold Buyers is one of the area's most popular GOLD store businesses, and is located at 960 Route 9 South, (Behind Burger King, and next to Farmer's Market) in Sayreville/South Amboy, NJ. Stop in and make some Ca$h on the spot.

Maureen Herndon, Owner of Rt 9 Cash For Gold, 960 Rt 9 South was Born and raised in Sayreville and has lived here her entire life which prompted her to open their store in town. When customers come to her store they bring all of their old, unwanted gold jewelry in exchange for CASH. Maureen & Rob greet their customers always with a friendly face. All their jewelry is tested and weighed with state certified scales right in front of them. They are then paid out in cash on the spot. Most of the pieces that are seen coming to the store are outdated, jewelry not worn anymore, single earrings, class rings, broken chains, dental gold, silver and platinum. People are VERY surprised when they come, and things they thought were "junk" turn, out to be actual gold. Maureen and Rob truly believe in HONESTY, LOYALTY & INTEGRITY, and that's what prompted them into opening their own store.

Many people have reported feeling extremely comfortable and confident when coming to Rt 9 Cash for Gold, and dealing with Maureen "THE GOLD LADY." It puts a smiling face to a business that sometimes people are skeptical to enter. This is definitely the business you would feel comfortable sending your mother or grandmother to because Maureen truly has the "women's touch."

Rt 9 Cash For Gold Buyers LLC is conveniently located BEHIND BURGER KING & MC DONALDS in the FARMERS MARKET PLAZA- easily accessible from RT 9 South, or Bordentown Ave. with lots of parking. Stop by today and turn your OLD, UNWANTED jewelry into holiday gifts. Open late 7 days a week. Rt 9 Cash For Gold Buyers 960 Rt 9 South Sayreville, NJ 732-727-GOLD (4653).

Holocaust survivor Sol Lurie gave a moving account of surviving six concentration camps, including Auschwitz, at a program at Middlesex County College in September called "Living Through Hell and Surviving It." Mr. Lurie came to the United States as an orphan and has dedicated his life to educating the world about the horrors of the Holocaust. His speech left some audience members in tears. Although his story is one of hate, Mr. Lurie also reminded the Middlesex community of the power of hope and love and to never surrender to hatred. Before his speech, Mr. Lurie spoke with faculty and students, from left: Professor Terrence Corrigan of the History and Social Sciences Department and director of the MCC Holocaust and Human Rights Center; Nick Provenzano and Chelsea Patel, members of the History and Human Rights student club; and Mr. Lurie. ## A South Amboy Irish Story

By John "Flip" Phillips

I read with a smile Elaine 'Holton' Scott's story on how the quiet little Dutch "village" of the 1600s' eventually became the town I remember from the 1940's and 50's, South Amboy. Let's see, back then we had around 40 taverns, and a lot of lights on Broadway, after dark were provided by taverns or liquor stores. Hey, it was a hard-working town, a railroad town, a three-shift town, and just about everyone liked a cold one after work, especially on the weekend. And truth-be-told, most of us young guys followed the lead. Now where does my Irish story come in? Well, my dad was one of those Irish transplants, but with an unusual entry.

The Story

My Irish cousin Helen from Liverpool, England told me this story during one of her visits. Yes, an Irish girl named Helen and living in Liverpool England, go figure. She told me that Liverpool has a large Irish community, and her dad Thomas (my dad's older brother) did not want to be a fisherman, so he settled there when times were tough in Ireland work wise. Back to the story: This according to my cousin is how my dad ended up in South Amboy:

He was born in 1900 in Arklow, Ireland to Mary and James Phillips. My grandfather was a fisherman. Arklow, about 30 miles south of Dublin, was and still is a fishing hub on the Irish Sea. My aunt told me my dad was a bright "urchin" and got himself into Trinity College in Dublin, majoring in some type of Engineering. That's where he got into trouble with the British, as those years were the terrible years of the Irish Civil War 1920-1922. So, he became a 'person-of-interest' to the British authorities. My aunt told me he then went to sea, first he signed on with the Merchant Marines and then he worked on cross-Atlantic passenger liners. I'd love to know what he did during those years before he landed in South Amboy.

Now the story goes that when one of the ships he was on (1931?) got to New York City he jumped ship. How he got to South Amboy is a mystery, my aunt did not know. And, my dad or my mother never told me. But, somehow, they met, got married and along came my brother Jim. He was named James instead of John after my dad because in Ireland the first named boy is always named after the father's father, a sign of respect. He was born in August 1933. For a few years they lived on a coal barge that took coal from South Amboy up to New York power plants. Remember the coal dumpers at the old coal docks? Around this time the government found out he was not here legally and deported him to Canada to await transfer back to Ireland. However, my mom (a tough Polish girl) got involved. Luckily the governor of New Jersey at that time was from South Amboy, Harold G Hoffman who lived on Broadway, and she "convinced" him to get my dad back into the country with a green card. He eventually became a citizen. They settled at 134 David Street below the tracks in the Bowery where I was born in-house on November 22, 1938. Delivered by Dr. Weber and our neighbor Mrs. Cook. My brother Joey came along about 18 months later. I guess I owe Governor Hoffman a thank you or else I would not be writing this story!

During the second world war my dad was in the Merchant Marines, and I believe he was torpedoed at least once. He would come and go but always brought us home something from the trips wherever he landed. Another memory was when my mom "forced" me to take accordion lessons. When I became good enough he would make me play his Irish music while sipping Irish Whiskey. But, then again, I would play the polkas for my mom while she sipped her Piwo (Polish for beer). What a mix, Irish and Polish. I remember an argument they had when I was very young when we lived on David Street at the beginning of summer. My mom wanted to buy sneakers for me and my brother Joey (Pinger), but he argued that it was summer, and we did not need shoes. The "urchins" in Ireland ran around in the summer without shoes. My mom won that one. His favorite tavern was Reiner's on Broadway. My brother Joey and I would usually find him there when we went looking for him on Fridays.... pay day. It was about this time that my mom and dad split up. He went off to sea again and we would see him occasionally between trips. Eventually he settled in New York City and became the "Heat and Steam" guy for the famous Carlyle hotel where he had his own room. My brother Joey tells me he was a regular at Toots Shores' Bar and Grill in the city. Joey and my dad spent a lot of time together in New York City when I was in the Marines. Joey should have been named after my dad instead of me, since they are "cut from the same mold". If you knew my brother "Pinger," you would agree. My dad passed away on the same day my daughter Cheryl was born, February 28, 1963. I got a call from the hospital telling me I was a father.... then a little while later my brother Jim called to tell me our dad passed on. He was only 63 years old, and here I am going to be 80 in November. I remember a lot more about my Irish dad, but let the past stay in the past.

I am proud to be 1/2 Irish and 1/2 Polish. And proud and happy to have been born and raised in South Amboy. I had a lot of good friends (a lot gone now), met my wife Iris there (56+ years), and my children were born in South Amboy. I have many good memories of that "Pleasant Little City". You may move away but you never forget South Amboy.

To St. Jude
May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored and glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude gave me hope. -S.S.

The mission of Eva's Village is to provide care and support for people who are struggling with poverty, hunger, homelessness and addiction. Their community of supportive services, based in Paterson, includes food, shelter, addiction and mental health treatment, childcare, job training, medical and dental care, and housing.

"Eva's Village is truly making a difference in the society, one community at a time. They have been serving 3 meals per day to 200-300 people per day for the last 36 years. The facility is clean, and the food is prepared and served hot to the 'Guests' on stoneware plates. The Guests appeared to be very thankful, and for some, that may be their only meal of the day. It is hard to believe that hunger and poverty lie so close to home," said Amboy Bank employee, Asifa Sayed.

Remembering a Veteran on This Veteran's Day

Submitted by a Veteran

As Veteran's Day quickly approaches, let us never forget those who offered their lives for the freedoms we enjoy in our daily lives. The following is an account of one Vietnam Veteran who was very dear to me. Throughout this article, I will refer to him as Soldier Dan.

Though we were separated by thirteen months of age, we did many things together. We grew up in the Melrose section of Sayreville, playing in the parks, in the woods, and on the streets. We attended Sacred Heart Grammar School together and went on to Sayreville War Memorial High School. We joined the Boys Scouts and went off to camp together. Though we had our similar interests, there were many times when those interests differed.

Following high school, we both attended technical schools, he at RCA Institutes and I at an electronic school in Newark. We both had student deferments at that time but knew sooner or later they would come to an end and ultimately, we would be receiving our "Greetings" letter from the Selective Service Board #32 in Perth Amboy, just as most young men of military age had done. We both procrastinated for as long as we could but ultimately went on to do what we had to do for the love of our country.

Knowing that my letter would be arriving soon, I wanted to make my own choice, so I joined the Navy for 4 years. But, Soldier Dan waited until he got his "Greetings" letter and was drafted into the Army on May 29, 1969. We were both scheduled to go to Vietnam, I on a NAVY guided missile destroyer and Soldier Dan in the ARMY 1st Cavalry Division.

Soldier Dan arrived in Vietnam on May 3rd, 1970 and was part of the First Cavalry, 9th Division. He served in country until April 7, 1971. During his time in country, he received the National Defense Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Good Conduct Medal, and the Army Air Medal.

After we were both discharged we never really discussed exactly what we did in the service. As I am sure most of you did the same. At times we highlighted specific incidents or occurrences and talked about the good times but never really focused on the negative. Soldier Dan was always an uplifting kind of guy in whatever he did. He was your typical joker. We always discussed the fun times, when they happened, which was infrequent. Soldier Dan was the guy who always sugar coated the negative events throughout his entire life. We joked frequently about some of the more memorable events that occurred while in the service. Though I had 2 major deployments to the Middle East in the Blue Water Navy and him in the Army Cav, we still had so much in common as all of us here today still do. Does it really matter which branch of the military we served in or what our duty was? Aren't we all brothers in one way or another.

When I asked Soldier Dan what he did while in Vietnam, he said that when he arrived in country, his company commander asked his group who could type. Well, he had typing in high school, so he raised his hand and was made the company clerk. So, when I asked him what his duties entailed, he told me that he played pool all day long, drank Coke, and smoked Luckies. Once again, sugar-coating his wartime experiences. I would tell him some of the neat things that happened on my guided missile destroyer, like when I was monitoring Electronic Warfare equipment in the Combat Information Center on board the ship and picked up a radar signal from a Russian Cruiser that locked on our ship with their missile guidance radar at 2 o'clock in the morning. As I notified the bridge watch officer, we went to General Quarters immediately and proceeded to lock our missile guidance radar on their ship with our missiles. You Navy vets can feel the excitement when the entire ship goes to general quarters during the middle of the night. You know that something important or dangerous is about to happen. All weapon systems were locked and loaded and aimed at each other. At any point, a nervous finger could have pulled the trigger and a missile could have been launched at either ship, and possibly starting WW III. Fortunately, both ships backed down.

We never talked about buddies that died, or the horrific scenes that we witnessed during our military careers.

About 25 years ago Soldier Dan moved away from the area, but we remained in contact, frequently by phone or a visit. Just before Memorial Day this year, Soldier Dan's wife called me and said that he was very sick. I talked to him on the phone and like usual, everything was good, and yes, he was sick, but he said he was getting better. He had carte blanche at the VA center for treatment of any medical issues and said that the treatment that he received was top notch for all his illnesses and never had a complaint about the VA. We all know that this doesn't sound like New Jersey.

Then he goes on to tell me he has been on a 100% disability from complications relating to "Agent Orange" and has had it for the past twenty years. I asked him why he didn't tell me and as usual he sugar-coated his medical condition and said that he would be getting better with upcoming treatments. I reminded him that when I asked him what he did in Vietnam, he told me he played pool all day long. Now he tells me that he did have to go out on patrol near the Laotian border and many times after the jungles were sprayed with the defoliant "Agent Orange". Brothers, I ask you what is the difference if you went out on patrol after the jungles were sprayed or while they were spraying them? Or you encountered "Agent Orange" in many other ways while in camp? For twenty years Soldier Dan was treated for cancer related to "Agent Orange." Throughout the last couple of years his cancer traveled throughout his entire body. He received chemotherapy all last year. Why didn't he tell me? But this was the kind of man Soldier Dan was, always thinking positive and that someday he would overcome his battle just as most of us do when we seek medical attention.

Unfortunately, his battle was soon over as Dan passed away on the evening of June 16th, 2018, from cancer related to "Agent Orange" complications. Soldier Dan is my younger brother.

Dan, your battles are over, rest in peace, your brothers will take the lead from here.

Tiny Living

By Elaine Holton Scott

While most celebrities and other nouveau riche continue to flaunt their wealth, status and ego by building mega-sized homes in a self-promoting aggrandizement of their personal self-worth, there is another segment of our American population which is doing the opposite. Wanting to leave a "small footprint" on this earth of ours, as well as, a small dent in their finances, more and more people are opting for "tiny living." For them, living tiny is a heck of a lot better (and cheaper) than living large. Living small really isn't a new concept. Many years ago, my own family had been a part of what was to be called, the Tiny House Nation, and it hadn't been for any altruistic reason at all. Instead, it was not having enough money to live "bigger." So, back to the beginning we must go.

My great grandparents, Mary Creed Slover and Andrew M. Slover, moved into their newly built home at 417 Conover Street in 1900. The house had 3 bedrooms upstairs and 3 rooms downstairs. The outhouse was located in a back corner of their approximate 50' x 100' yard, while the water well had been dug about 5 feet from the back of the house. Personally, I think the two were too close for comfort but I guess it was okay since no one had died from diphtheria.

When the house was built, my future paternal grandmother, Margaret, was only 6 years old, and was given one of the bedrooms all to herself. My great grandparents slept in another. A total of four sons would come along, and all of them had to share the only other bedroom. By 1912, sewer pipes had been laid throughout South Amboy and soon people were paying to get their homes connected to them. My great granddad, who had a good job working for the railroad, was one of them. Unlike many other families who had opted to have the plumbing installed in their cellars, my great granddad chose the boys' bedroom to be fitted with a toilet, sink, and claw-footed bathtub. Quickly, the outhouse was torn down and the well covered. As for the boys, their new "bedroom" was in the cellar.

Having a steady income, my great grandfather soon bought himself a model T Ford, but before he did, he decided to build a "garage" like other new car owners were doing. He, though, went one-step further. On top of the new garage, he added an apartment, no more than 300 square feet, to house the sons still living at home. The small space of the apartment had been made a little bigger by adding a tiny extension off the kitchen. Besides the small eat-in kitchen with a "water closet" in the corner, there was a walkway with just enough room for two twin beds one on each side leading into a small living room/bedroom. "Small" was the keyword. An electric space heater and the open oven door in the kitchen kept the place warm in the cold months. In 1923, my great grandfather died after falling from the apartment's roof while making repairs.

In 1939, my parents married, moving into the garage apartment soon afterwards, where three children would later be born. I was one of them. In 1953, after my family had moved to Victory Plaza, a new garage was built minus an apartment. That makes me an original Tiny House "veteran"... doesn't it?

MCC Selected For Free Community College Program For Spring

Middlesex County College is one of 13 community colleges in New Jersey that will be offering free tuition and fees to those students with adjusted gross incomes of $45,000 per year or less. The program will start in the spring semester of 2019.

All 19 community colleges applied to be a part of the Community College Innovation Challenge pilot program, and New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy announced those selected at an event held at Union County College on Thursday, September 27.

“Today we are putting the dream of higher education within reach of more students and more families,” Governor Murphy said. “Making community college tuition free will help New Jersey’s young people and working adults earn post-secondary degrees to advance their careers—and it will help build the talented workforce that is the engine of our state’s economy.”

The 2019 state budget includes new funding for the first phase of Governor Murphy’s community college initiative, including up to $20 million for Community College Opportunity Grant (CCOG) awards to be applied directly to eligible student accounts. Students with adjusted gross incomes of $45,000 or less who take six or more credits in the spring 2019 semester will be eligible to receive CCOG awards to cover tuition and educational fees, after applying any other federal or state grant aid, such as federal Pell grants or New Jersey Tuition Assistance Grants. This initiative is the first step toward the Governor’s long-term goal to offer two years of free community college to all New Jersey residents.

Mark McCormick, interim president of Middlesex County College, said he was thrilled that MCC is on the list.

“At Middlesex County College, we support the Governor’s vision of making community college free,” he said. “We are very pleased that beginning in January, eligible residents of Middlesex County may take advantage of this additional source of aid that will ensure that all tuition and fees are covered. With this new state grant, we can expand educational opportunities for Middlesex County residents. Studies show that earning an Associate Degree increases lifetime earning capacity. MCC will soon be reaching out to share this good news with everyone in Middlesex County.”

In addition, each community college in New Jersey will receive $250,000 in planning grant funds to assist in the implementation of the new program.

“We are very excited about the opportunities that the planning grant will afford us,” Dr. McCormick said. “It will help us to expand our outreach to further connect with our community to identify new students who will benefit from the Governor’s plan and to enhance our support resources to ensure that students have access to the help they’ll need to achieve their educational goals at Middlesex County College. We look forward to the opportunity to serve more students while maintaining the focus on our mission to provide access to a quality, affordable education for our community.”

The Smoke Column

By Ex-Chief Richard Kosmoski, MS

Many times in the past I have written about the inherent dangers that firefighters face in their line of work. Responding to the fire station in your own personal vehicle and then riding the apparatus to the incident scene is dangerous. Once you arrive on scene, you enter a smoke-charged burning building to search for victims and suppress the fire with the possibility of the entire structure collapsing around you. This is extremely dangerous work. But now we are seeing ultra-dangerous situations that we would never have imagined 20-30-40 years ago that have had tragic outcomes.

This past June, a 45-year-old fire Captain, Dave Rosa from the Long Beach, California Fire Department, was fatally shot and 35-year-old Firefighter Ernesto Torres was seriously injured. These firefighters were responding to the report of a building explosion in an 11-story retirement facility. Upon arrival they found windows blown out, activated sprinklers, the smell of gas and a fire that they extinguished.

As these two firefighters were conducting a search of the building for victims and fire extension, they were shot by a 77-year-old building resident who had purposely started the fire to draw firefighters to the facility. He was quickly arrested and charged on suspicion of murder, attempted murder and arson.

These firefighters are but two examples of attacks on first responders. When responding to a fire, or any type of an emergency, being attacked by those we are responding to help should be the last thing we should be concerned about. Saving lives and suppressing the fire should be our priority, not worrying about being a target for some disgruntled lunatic. Unfortunately, this is the way it is today. These types of situations are not specific to firefighters alone but include attacks on EMS personnel and law enforcement officers.

Just a few years ago a similar situation occurred when two firefighters in upstate New York were gunned down while responding to a structure fire. They were shot by the homeowner, who had purposely set the fire, with the intent to kill the firefighters upon their arrival.

Almost every day we hear about law enforcement officers being attacked, on and off duty, by people with agendas too numerous to mention. What has society come to? Where has the respect for authority and public service disappeared to? If you haven't seen these changes coming over the past years, then you are being blinded by the changes in society.

In the fire service we must be ever vigilant to our surroundings and in everything we do from the initial report of an emergency to the time that we return home safely. Take nothing for granted! Evil and danger lurk around every corner. If we think that it will happen to someone else and not in our community, we are only fooling ourselves. We may be that next community. Communities that have experienced these types of events never expected it to happen to them. Locally, fire departments are protecting themselves in various ways. Enclosed cabs on the apparatus not only protect firefighters from falling but keeps them semi-hidden inside. The Plainfield Fire Department is now carrying bullet proof vests on their responding apparatus. Did you notice on TV that every time a mass casualty event occurs involving a shooting, you will see fire apparatus at the scene. It is difficult for bullets to penetrate through all that metal and water and it serves as a barrier against them. Remember that the firefighting gear that we wear does not stop bullets! How difficult is it to suppress a fire while wearing 60 pounds of gear and equipment and then having to don a bullet-proof vest?

Unfortunately, there are many unanswered questions to these problems and not enough solutions. Our best defense is in our experience and knowing our surroundings always, we call it "Situation Awareness". Expect the unexpected

Rumbles from the Rock and Roll Reunion

By Clem Skarzynski

Many thanks going out to Mr. Jerry Ust, Jeff Schnitzer, Elyse Barone, Patti Fausto, and the entire staff at the Sayreville Recreation Department, for putting together another successful Doubleheader Weekend with Sayreville Day 2018, and The 10th Annual "Blast from the Past" Car Show and Concert, on the 15th and 16th of September! And also, the members of the Parks Dept. under the direction of Mr. Phil Quigley for getting the Park and its grounds in great shape from the previous weeks rains for the events. Great crowd for Saturdays "Sayreville Day" with numerous vendors and local businesses there for the residents and visitors to familiarize themselves with. Sunday's "Blast from the Past" Car Show and Concert with DJ Richie Hart and the "Just us Cruisers car club, brought out 150 Custom Cars, Hot Rods, and Antique Vehicles from the 1920's to the 1970's! They did a fantastic job raising money for the Sayreville B.I.C. Association, thank you guys, as always. My thanks also go out to the members of Central Jersey's #1 Classic Rock and Oldies Group "Clem and Friends" for once again providing endless live "Rock n Roll" for the days show, with Lead Vocalist-Fran Fee, his brother Tim on the Drum Kit, Bassist-Rick Jackson, Keyboardist-Richie Standowski, and a set of "Super Horn Players" Mr. Craig Hoek, and Jerry Mocar on the alto and tenors. The band tore into 2 hot sets of horn laced Classic Rock, and dug into some pretty nice "Oldies" along the way! The best musicians in the area had the crowd "rockin" throughout the show! Also, thanks going out to Mr. Tom Burkard and Co. from The S.A. Times for covering both events! Hey Rockers, and wannabes...S.A. Knights have resumed their "Open Mic Nites" as of Sept. 28th...next one up, Friday, Oct. 26th..word has it Mr. Acoustic, Jerry Smith, will be "backed 'by a bassist, drummer and electric guitarist for this upcoming show! Be there for this one! Johnny Maestro Tribute Band rehearsing and going strong with weekly rehearsals here in my Studio! I've got to close this month's column, and dedicate it to a Dear Friend, and fellow Musician/Drummer, Mr. Dave Silva. Dave, we're all here for you in these sad times with the loss of your beautiful wife Debi. We will remember her in our prayers always. To all, peace and be as well as you can. See you in next issue.

Well-liked and respected throughout the area,
he loved his sports, having played baseball and basketball for St. Mary's HS, and years later became one of the most outstanding slow pitch softball pitchers in South Amboy.

He worked at MUA for many years until his retirement in 2004. He went on to work for Dooling Electric of South Amboy.

Sayreville Bombers Football Update

Bombers Win Fourth Straight

The powerhouse Sayreville Bombers football team pounded Monroe, 38-0 to capture their fourth consecutive victory of the season. Zuriel Wright racked up 177 yards on 8 rushes, and scored 4 touchdowns to lead the offense. He also had 50 yards receiving, and finished with 227 total offensive yards.
Quarterback Mark Whitford connected on 6-for-9 passes, and 113 yards, while also rushing for 106 yards on 5 attempts.

The defense was paced by Connor
Anthony with 6 tackles, 2 sacks, 3 hurries, and 2 assists...

Bombers Beat Edison In Thriller To Capture Title

In one of the most exciting games in Sayreville history, the Bombers, who trailed Edison, came back, and with no time on the clock, scored the game-winning touchdown on a 19-yard strike from Whitford to Jacari Carter, who made a spectacular over-the-shoulder catch in the back corner of the end zone, and dragged one foot in bounds before falling to the ground, as the Bombers prevailed, 13-12.

The victory was Sayreville's fifth straight without a loss, and clinched the GMC White Division title.

Six In A Row For Sayreville

The amazing Sayreville team made Old Bridge its sixth consecutive victim this season, by obliterating OB, 30-7. The Bombers jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the opening quarter when Zacari Carter connected with Cameron
Davis on a 52-yard scoring strike. Zuriel
Wright bulldozed his way into the end zone from 2-yards out to give our locals a 13-7 lead at the half. Wright rushed for another 5-yard
TD. Connor Holmes had a huge two-way game, rushing 19 times for 175 yards, with a 21-yard touchdown run. He also piled up 5 tackles to pace the defense. Nick Milewski booted a beautiful 27-yard field goal for the final scoring of the contest.

Coach Beagan's undefeated Bombers are now ranked #9 in USA Today Network New Jersey's statewide Top 20 rankings.

(To be said when problems arise or when one seems to be deprived of all visible help, on far cases almost despaired of). Most holy Apostle St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of, pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use I implore you of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise O Blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen. Hi Tom!

This month's WWW is The Christ Church Memorial Hall on Fourth St. S.A. I remember when they baked and sold a sweet bread during the Lenten season. Shirley Cottrell (Gary's mom) who worked for Amboy Bank, would bring loaves of the bread, and sell it to the employees during lunch with the proceeds going to Christ Church. The whole bank smelled like fresh baked bread.

September Information

Where in New Jersey?

By Brian & Phyllis Stratton

The Where in NJ for September was the entrance to Rutgers Landscape & Nursery 1051 US-202 Ringoes, N.J.

Rutgers Landscape & Nursery was founded in 1986 by 19-year-old Jim Brophy. Jim had worked several part-time jobs in landscaping while he attended Rutgers University, and developed an interest in plants and the outdoors. Determined to improve the professionalism of this industry, and seeing a need for high quality, dependable landscaping, he decided to start his own business. Upon graduation from Rutgers, Jim already had eight full-time employees on staff. Two years later, Jim purchased the Victorian farmhouse and surrounding eight acres on Route 31 in Ringoes. With this acquisition, he expanded his business to include a retail Nursery. Today this property houses the studios of Rutgers Landscape Design, and acres of materials and display gardens. In 2005, a 12-acre parcel of land was purchased on Route 202 in Ringoes to house and expand the growing retail operation. The Nursery subsequently moved to this new property in 2007 — the place with those BIG YELLOW CHAIRS!

September - Where in New Jersey?

The winners were Dennis Quinlan, Edna Mazur Pilch, and Dane Colburn.

VIETNAM VETERANS REMEMBERED

By Past Commander Rich Kosmoski

On Sunday evening, October 14th, the Sayreville American Legion Lenape Post 211 conducted their Seventh Annual Vietnam Veterans Remembrance Ceremony at their Post Home. The ceremony was a great success with over 100 Vietnam Veterans and their families in attendance. Hometown men, who were killed in action during the war, were recognized by the placing of individual flags in their honor by members of the American Legion Honor Guard as their name, branch of service, and date of death was read off. Father Stanley Gromadzki, Pastor of The Church of Sacred Heart, offered the Invocation and Benediction. Master of Ceremonies, Past Commander Rich Kosmoski, presented an account of a soldier that served in the Vietnam War and his experiences both during his time in service and afterwards. The Honor Guard conducted a rifle salute to all fallen veterans which was followed by the playing of TAPS by the ceremonial bugler and then Amazing Grace by the Middlesex County Police and Fire Pipe and Drums.

In recognition of the 50th Anniversary of the Vietnam War, commemoration pins were issued to each Vietnam Veteran along with surviving spouse pins to the widows of deceased Vietnam Veterans. This very moving ceremony will continue to exist as long as there are Vietnam Veterans alive. "WE WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER AND NEVER FORGET."

Walking For Your Good Health

Over the last quarter of a century the exercise field has experienced one craze after another. But only one activity – fitness walking – has shown steady growth and popularity. Walking is a surprisingly effective strategy for lifelong health. It is accessible to almost everyone. You've done it all your life and you can continue to do it well into old age. Walking also delivers proven benefits to all of the body's major systems ... muscles, bones, heart and circulation. You can walk almost anywhere without special facilities or equipment. Studies show that walkers traveling faster than five miles an hour actually burn twice as many calories as runners going the same speed. When you begin a walking program, keep in mind that you're in no big hurry. This is lifetime health, not overnight magic. At first, forget heart rates and stop watches. Just go walk at a comfortable pace slightly above a stroll.

You don't have to walk any particular way, but there comes a point when refinements offer definite benefits. The correct posture, arm swing and stride add up to higher intensity exercise and lower risk of injury.

Posture – when walking, lean slightly forward, from the ankles, not the waist. Leaning from the waist will only tire your back and make breathing harder. Keep your head level and your chin up.

Arm swing – keep your elbows firmly bent at a 90-degree angle, and swing your arms from the shoulder. Your hand should end its forward swing at breastbone height. On the backswing, if you're moving fast, the upper arm is almost parallel to the ground.

Stride – make your stride long and smooth. Borrow some moves from competitive race walkers: keep your supporting leg straight as your body passes over it, and let the hip rise and relax. As the leg moves to the rear, keep its foot on the ground as long as possible before pushing off.

Remember – the proper technique is not as important as getting out there and doing something. Keep in mind that healthy people are well overall; their activities help fend off heart disease and circulatory problems. The key is to stay active.

Keep it up – to make walking a habit, takes will power and sometimes a strategy. Schedule regular walks with a friend if you need an extra push, or walk first thing in the morning before other commitments crop up, or vary your routine to keep it interesting or get a dog! Finally, try not to think of it as exercise. It's time you've set aside for yourself. Enjoy it.

"The Pleasant Little City"

(By Albert Gomolka Jr.)

Times Poet Laureate c.1998

The Pleasant Little City by the bay
May God bless it so forever it may stay
That grows today just as it's yesterday
This Pleasant Little City by the bay
Two hundred years ago Amboy began
Settled upon the banks of the Raritan
The people knew since it's original plan
This was a very special piece of land
And the years brought history and fame
From a Governor, coal,
and the fast rail train
To weapons, ammunition, and explosions of the same
A fact in Mr. Ripley's book, and the Major League game
But it's the people of the town
That yields its royal cordial crown
Caring, hard working, lovers and clowns
Where neighbors, friends, and family abound
This Pleasant Little City by the bay
If born, raised, or worked, you'll know the way "It's home," may we be all so proud to say
Of this Pleasant Little City by the bay.

Letters to the Editor

To: Independent Minds of South Amboy

You are reading this because the future of South Amboy depends on your vote. My name is Brandon Russell and I am your independent candidate for the Mayor's Office.

As your next potential Mayor, I feel it is important for every citizen to know who I am and what I am about.

As an Eagle Scout, volunteer coach, experienced cost-benefit analyst and college graduate, I am the only candidate with no political affiliations; which also means the only people I answer to are the ones who live in South Amboy.

I am a lifelong resident of South Amboy and this City will be always be the one that raised me.

The Greatest Generation, the Baby Boomers, and the Gen-Xers are whom I have learned from over the course of my 24 years. I have learned from their work ethic, their ability to adapt to tough times, their resilience, and their intelligence. I am confident these generations are both wise and knowledgeable enough to look past my age and recognize who is the best candidate for this position.

We are a product of who came before us. I learned three important lessons from those who came before me:

- Respect your elders.
- Never start a job you don't intend to finish.
- Always fight for what is right.

I am proud to say I am a millennial because of the people and the city that raised me. I was taught to work hard, ask questions, and never give up.

I have spent the last 12 months becoming well-versed in the issues that our city is facing. I am confident these issues are easy to correct and at low-cost, but they are time sensitive.

The City of South Amboy desperately needs someone in the Mayor's Office who will put people over party. On November 6th, we have a chance to make history by electing a leader who will represent the people of South Amboy for the first time in a long time.

Most politicians make promises they can't keep, my mission is to be the candidate who makes realistic goals and follows through on them.

If you are interested in supporting my campaign, all I ask is that you spread the word. Get people excited about electing fresh leadership and honest politicians, not just in South Amboy but nationally as well.

Voting independent is voting for change. With your vote, I can help get South Amboy back on track!

With regards,
Brandon J. Russell
Independent Candidate for Mayor of South Amboy

Why South Amboy Needs Change and Why I'm Running for Mayor

The South Amboy Times

Recently, one night around 9:30 p.m., I was outside on my street helping a neighbor search for a lost kitten when I ran into a young couple who live on my block.

We struck up a conversation and they asked me, "Pete, why are you running for mayor anyway?" That was an excellent question and I thought about it for a moment before giving them the typical, rhetorical campaign response. Why am I running for mayor?

I have lived here in South Amboy for quite a long time and like many, have heard the promises from the various administrations about how they were going to finally revitalize and transform the city. For years I've heard the tales about the grand design for a ferry system that has never materialized and the stories about economic redevelopment that would re-energize the city. I have seen the recent construction on our roads and listened to the sudden, knee-jerk plans to bring businesses into town, which were nothing more than contrived, election-time public relations stunts.

The fact of the matter is, South Amboy has not lived up to its fullest potential because of mismanagement, lack of leadership and its current and past leaders' inability to listen to the residents, who have asked for positive change over and over again.

I am running for mayor because I believe I can help transform this city into a thriving community through my ideas for improvement, innovation, and greater involvement. Change is the motivating factor for my decision.

If elected, my team and I will look to attract new businesses, while helping to support the existing ones, by creating a strong core economic business development organization that will be based on not only input from business leaders but from members of the public as well. Bringing businesses and citizens together as part of an ongoing partnership will help better define South Amboy's economic and social future through limitless prospects for growth.

We need more retail development, including a supermarket in the city, as opposed to the overdevelopment, overcrowding and over populating through the expansive building of condominiums on top of townhomes. Traffic and congestion is already a problem throughout South Amboy. And yes, we need to finally build a water taxi/ferry system to New York City.

There is a lot more to governance than business development, infrastructure management, and economic solvency. The fabric of every community is its citizens, not sticks and bricks. South Amboy is unique because of its diverse population. Everyone deserves a voice and everyone deserves to be heard. I will make it a top priority to not only get out into the community and interact with our residents, as well as keep the proverbial mayor's door open and allow for transparent two-way communication at all times.

South Amboy has a rich and storied tradition. If elected mayor, I will position the city as a welcoming environment for education, the arts, and use its diverse heritage and cultural attractions to enrich the experience of both residents and visitors.

Since we are a community that is made up of people we need to recognize, identify and solve real problems that affect our citizens. The opioid and heroin epidemic that is sweeping across the country does not discriminate against South Amboy. I have personally seen the damage the drug problem has caused here in town and have heard the stories from residents who have lost loved ones to overdoses. I can also relate to this devastation from my own personal loss.

We don't have a drug problem, we have a human problem. We need to react and treat the opioid and heroin issue with a strong but compassionate hand. I have a plan that would address the drug crisis and involve strategic and consistent engagement with medical professionals, pharmacists, law enforcement officials, educators, students, parents, legislators, community leaders, counselors and recovering addicts to better understand all of their needs in addressing the problem from their own unique perspectives.

My plan would also call for the creation of special task forces that would consist of South Amboy Police officers, members of nearby departments and officers from the Middlesex County Sheriff's Office who would strategically work together to address the criminality associated with illegal drugs and attack the root of the problem— locate, arrest, gather intelligence and help convict serial drug dealers/suppliers.

Community policing is not just a flash in the pan expression. Our officers risk their lives and work tirelessly to protect the citizens of South Amboy. At the same time, many of the city's residents need to gain a better understanding of who these brave officers are and why they do exactly what they do. We must cultivate relationships within the community so that the police are seen as allies in promoting public safety. I would direct the police force to research community policing practices that have worked in other cities and customize them to fit our city's needs.

So, my answer to the couple on the street as to why am I running for mayor, "We need change." I am a retired, proud member of the Middlesex County Sheriff's Office and while I could be sitting back, relaxing and enjoying my retirement years, I feel a strong urgency to make my beloved city even better. Change is good and without change, we sit stagnantly and move nowhere.

Sincerely
Peter Pisar
Candidate For Mayor of South Amboy

To the South Amboy Community:

On Tuesday, November 6th, the citizens of South Amboy, along with the rest of the nation, will have the opportunity to exercise their right as citizens to cast their vote for those they choose to lead them. I am running for re-election as your Mayor and I believe that I have the experience, the knowledge, and the right temperament to continue in that role.

It has been mentioned that "nothing but housing" has been developed in the City for many years. I would say that Venetian healthcare, the YMCA, and smart growth redevelopment like Woodmont Cove is more than that. These are very real and important additions to the city of South Amboy. Don't listen to the scare tactics of others. There was mention of the increased population the Manhattan Beach project will produce. Today's population in South Amboy is roughly 8,800. I would like to remind everyone that the population of South Amboy in 1970 was 9,338! With an increase we will be getting back to, and a little over, what it was. I'm sure that the South Amboy businesses would welcome a few more patrons. Also, an impact study was done by an outside firm with input from the Fire department, Police department, and School officials. None had a major problem with the new development. There is room in the school for the projected number of potential students (in fact, school population has dropped by 81 from 1151 in 2011 to 1071 in 2017!), the proposed development will be equipped with sprinkler systems, and I have hired additional police officers to ensure safety. The development will be doing their own plowing, garbage and recycle pick ups. This is what smart growth is all about—realizing revenue without straining City service!

As to fiscal impact and responsibility, my administration has produced some great budgets which have resulted in increased surpluses for the past 6 years. Part of the surplus was put back into the following year's budget in order to stabilize municipal taxes and provide tax relief. We have no control over school budgets and thus school tax.

This smart growth has resulted in an improved credit rating from S & P and Moody's. This allows to get a better rate on loans and enabled us to purchase 7 new police cars, a street sweeper, a new senior bus, a rake and tractor for the beach, and various public works vehicles including a new garbage truck. The cost of these items alone was over $2,000,000! With smart growth everybody benefits! The added revenue from new developments allows us to spread out the tax burden. Think of what your taxes would be if we didn't have that revenue! We still have to pay police, public workers, and buy new equipment. The costs do not go down very often.

In 2011 when I was first elected Mayor the medium price of a house in South Amboy was $231,000. In 2018 it is $268,000 and in 2019 it is projected to be $292,000 (Zillow, Inc)!! Everybody benefits from this type of smart growth.

There are some who are injecting fear of change in South Amboy. I am not. I remain confident that as we move forward with smart growth projects, all of South Amboy will continue to benefit.

Recently, we received Request for Proposals (RFP) for the design of the Ferry Terminal and Parking lot and we will be awarding that contract shortly. The resumption of Ferry Service will be another boon to the residents of South Amboy.

Some have accused the City of a lack of transparency. I strongly disagree. We have upgraded our web site; produced a periodical news letter; upgraded the TV station; installed video in the council chambers to start taping all public meetings; and more improvements are planned for the future.

Certainly some meetings are held in closed session such as contract negotiations with prospective developers and city contracts. There is a need for some confidentially or else there can be nothing accomplished. When the time is right everything is aired for the public and all votes are done in public. That's the law.

With ordinances such as 16-2018, which prohibits the sale of recreational marijuana in South Amboy, we will continue to combat drug addiction and support the efforts of others who wage the war every day.

This is just a little sampling of what has been accomplished during my tenure as Mayor. I would strongly disagree with statements that my leadership has not done what is best for the community.

If you really look around our beautiful City you will notice many positive initiatives, I know there is much more to be done. With my experience and leadership I will continue to work in the best interests of the citizens of South Amboy. I am asking for your support and your vote on November 6th.

Thank you,
Sincerely,
Mayor Fred A. Henry

Fishing Flashes

By Teo "Weebles" Weber

Salt water
 The un-seasonal warm weather has seen many semi-tropical fish as I found out when I went surf fishing at LBI in mid-September. I caught 4 small Dogfish, a short 15 inch Fluke, which I released, a small Bluefish and a small Pompano. Quite a few Pompano were caught in that area. I returned there in early October. I caught 3 Bluefish, 2 were snapper size, one of them, was over a pound. I did catch a real small Kingfish. There are a lot of small to medium sized Blues being caught in the surf now along with a few Striped Bass. In Raritan Bay it's still slow but storms and cold water will change that. With Fluke season closed, party boats are now catching Porgies. Some of them are a good size along with some nice Sea Bass. Bluefish party boats are doing well with Blues going from 2 to 8 pounds. Bonito and False Albacore are mixed in the catch. A few Spanish and King Mackerel also have shown up because of the warm water.

Fresh Water
 Fall Trout stocking took place during Columbus Day week. 14 to 16 inch Rainbows with a few 24 inches were stocked. Delaware River fishing has slowed up due to recent heavy rains. The same is true for the Passaic River. Hybrid Stripers are hitting in Lake Hopatcong and Spruce Run Reservoir. I tried my luck at the North Branch at Far Hills one afternoon but it was only an exercise in casting!

The Halloween Ball

(Author Unknown)
 Ghosts and ghouls
 And monsters too
 Mummies and vampires
 You never know
 What the zombies will do
 I'll take the Werewolf of London
 How about you?
 Frankenstein is the host
 At the Halloween Ball
 It's the best event
 Throughout the fall.

Halloween
 (Author Unknown)
 Orange and black
 On Halloween Night
 Monsters and ghosts
 Such eerie sights
 Trick or Treat It's that time of the year
 Kids havin' fun
 Such good times
 So much candy and cheer.

With today's advanced technology, it would have been very easy to shoot a team picture and send it over to us for publication, and players could have shared this great moment in their lives with their family and friends.

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

(To be said when problems arise or when one seems to be deprived of all visible help, on far cases almost despaired of). Most holy Apostle St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of, pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use I implore you of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise O Blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen. Thank You St. Jude. -E.P.
